Draft 19/12

I 2nd Council with the recommendations now made. Resolution proposed in his of 6th August last ~~that~~ of the appointment of the posts of Market Sergeant and the Hackney Carriage Inspector with a consolidated pay of Rs 30 per mensem, on an Ali Khan who held both the posts each carrying a salary of Rs 15 (total Rs 30) being appointed as Sanitary Inspector. This proposal however was sanctioned by Govt on the ground that each office required undivided attention of a Sergeant or an Inspector, as case might be, and that it was for the Board to find means whereby better and secure efficiency. The present recommendation accordingly been made for the appointment of a Market Sergeant on Rs 15 and a separate Hackney carriage Inspector on Rs 20 + Rs 15 (horse-allowance). There is already provision in the budget for Rs 30 a mensem the extra cost of Rs 20 will be met under XI Miscellaneous, Rs

SIR,

I have the honor to state that as per Board's resolution dated 30th November 1900, the former President appointed a separate Hackney Coach Inspector on Rs 20+10 with effect from the following month (December) in anticipation of Government sanction which was subsequently accorded (vide Government Proceedings No. 8628-29 / L 7. 226-96 dated 5th January 1901). As the Commissioners were objected to the disbursement of the pay with effect from the date of the appointment, I request he may be kindly directed to pass the bill as due provision has been made in the Budget to meet the cost.
